Renée Marx appointed vice-chair of the AUC

AUC Chair Carolyn Dahl Rees has appointed Renée Marx as vice-chair.

Renée has served as a Commission member since July 2022 and has more than 20 years of experience in energy and utility regulation. Renée's career has focused on energy and regulatory law with a strong emphasis on utilities and regulatory reform, primarily within the Alberta context. She has held senior legal positions centred on regulatory affairs with several organizations, including the Alberta Energy Regulator, a large transmission operator in the province, a major Alberta generation firm, and with the AUC's predecessor, the Alberta Energy and Utilities Board.

Since joining the Commission, Ms. Marx has helped streamline hearing processes for power plant and other facility applications, chaired Module A of the AUC's inquiry into the ongoing economic, orderly and efficient development of electricity generation in Alberta, and has served on Commission panels considering major facility, rate and data centre-related applications.

Ms. Marx holds a bachelor of arts in political science and a bachelor of laws from the University of Calgary. She is a member of the Law Society of Alberta and the Canadian Bar Association.
