Leadership update: Kristjana Kellgren to depart the AUC

After 12 years of service to the Alberta Utilities Commission (AUC), Kristjana Kellgren, executive director of Rates, will be leaving the organization to begin the next chapter in her career. Her last day will be Friday, August 21, 2026.

Kristjana joined the AUC in 2014 in the Law Division and advanced through increasingly senior roles before being appointed the executive director of Rates in 2020. In this role, she has provided steady leadership through periods of significant change and has contributed to the continued strength of the AUC's regulatory work.

Throughout her time with the AUC, Kristjana has been recognized for her expertise, sound judgment, collaborative approach and strong commitment to public service.

“Kristjana has been a trusted leader, valued colleague and significant contributor to the AUC's success,” said incoming chief executive JP Mousseau. “Her integrity, professionalism and care have been evident throughout her time with the organization.”

The AUC extends its sincere appreciation to Kristijana for her years of service and contributions to the organization.
