The AUC welcomes Laurel Sherret as its new general counsel

The Alberta Utilities Commission (AUC) is pleased to announce that Laurel Sherret will join the organization as general counsel, effective November 2, 2026.

Laurel brings extensive legal, regulatory and leadership experience from the Canada Energy Regulator, formerly the National Energy Board, where she has served since 2013. Her roles have included associate general counsel, interim general counsel, chief of staff and corporate secretary. Her work has spanned legal and strategic advice, risk management, governance, stakeholder relationships and support for complex organizational decision-making.

Earlier in her career, Laurel worked with the International Criminal Court and the United Nations Refugee Agency and clerked at the Ontario Superior Court of Justice. Her experience leading teams and helping decisionmakers reach practical, legally defensible outcomes will support the AUC in fulfilling its mandate with integrity.
